THEME

We might think of a “king” as an example or an ideal. A king or queen shows a people their own dignity. We want to be freed from the indignity of sin. Christ our King eagerly sets us free and helps us discover our worth.

Feast of Christ the King, also called Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, festival celebrated in the Roman Catholic Church in honor of Jesus Christ as Lord over all creation. Essentially a magnification of the Feast of the Ascension, it was established by Pope Pius XI in 1925. Originally, it was celebrated on the last Sunday in October, but in the revised liturgical calendar promulgated by Pope Paul VI in 1969 it was moved to the last Sunday of Ordinary Time (immediately preceding Advent), where its theme of Christ’s dominion made it a fitting end to the liturgical year. The festival is also observed in Lutheran, Anglican, and other Protestant churches.

Jesus Christ is our friend and our brother. He is also Savior and Redeemer. We should have a personal and tender friendship with him. But Jesus Christ is also our Lord and our King; he will be our judge. Today we celebrate the kingship of Christ to remind us of the reverence owed to the Lord. He is merciful, but ever just; he is human, but divine; he is meek, but mighty in his judgements. Let us serve him with all our heart.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

WHAT DRAWS PEOPLE INTO THE CATHOLIC FAITH? While there are many different circumstances that lead a person in the direction of Catholicism, the simple answer is, "Because God has called them."

Most often, God calls to us through the people closest to us, through our families and friends. Most who have entered the Church have been influenced by a Catholic spouse, fiancé, or close friend. For many of these people, a desire to raise their children in the knowledge of God spurred them to action. What is this if not the action of the Holy Spirit?

If you, or someone you know, is interested in learning more about Catholic Faith and Worship contact Louis Valenti at 610-687-2481 or email SIJDRE@gmail.com.
